7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 MADIHA MINER,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 KING COUNTY HOUSING
14 AUTHORITY SECTION EIGHT,

15 Defendant.

CASE NO. C19-0848JLR

ORDER STRIKING MOTIONS

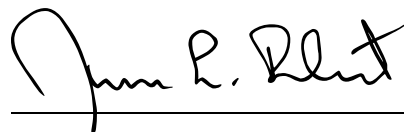

16 On June 19, 2019, the court entered an order remanding this action to King County
17 Superior Court because this court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiff Madiha
18 Miner's complaint. (See Order (Dkt. # 7).) The matter is closed, and pursuant to Local 19 Rule LCR 3(i), the Clerk will remand this action on July 3, 2019. See Local Rules W.D.
20 Wash. LCR 3(i).

21 Despite the court's ruling, on June 25, 2019, Ms. Miner filed three motions,
22 including a motion for a default judgment against Defendant King County Housing

1 Authority Section Eight (Mot. 1 (Dkt. # 8)), a motion requesting a subpoena duces tecum
2 (Mot. 2 (Dkt. # 10)), and a motion to remove the action to the Washington Supreme
3 Court (Mot. 3 (Dkt. # 12)). Even liberally construed, none of these motions constitutes a
4 motion for reconsideration of the court's remand order and all are nonsensical.
5 Concerning her first motion, there is no basis for granting a default judgment in this
6 matter. (See Mot. 1.) Not only does the court lack subject matter jurisdiction to do so
7 (see Order at 3), but there is no indication on the docket that Ms. Miner has served
8 Defendant and no order of default is on file (see generally Dkt.). Her second motion for 9 a subpoena duces tecum asks the court "to submit all evidence with the United States
10 Supreme [C]ourt," a request that is incoherent given the procedural posture of this case.
11 (Mot. 2 at 1.) Finally, with respect to Ms. Miner's third motion, there is no process under 12 law for removing an action from a federal district court to the Washington Supreme
13 Court. (See Mot. 3.)

14 Based on the foregoing, the court STRIKES Ms. Miner's motions (Dkt. ## 8, 10, 15 12), and DIRECTS the Clerk to remove them from the court's calendar.

16 Dated this 1st day of July, 2019.
